

Story: Once Upon a Snowflake

No two snowflakes are the same, and neither are two snowmen. Join us for this heartwarming new musical about a small snow girl with big dreams! In the end, we all learn about never giving up and what it truly means to give!.

THEATER ETIQUETTE

Audience members play a special and important role in the performance. The performers are very aware of the audience while they perform, and each performance calls for different audience responses. Lively bands, musicians and dancers may desire audience members to clap and move to the beat. Other performers require silent focus on the stage and will want an audience to applaud only when they have completed a portion of their performance. As you enjoy the show, think about being a part of the performance.

- What are the differences between attending a live performance and going to a movie or watching television?
- What are some different types of live performances? Name a few as a class.
- What kind of responses might an audience give in each circumstance?
- What are the different cues that a performer will give you so that you know how to respond? For example, might they bow or pause for applause?

Also, remember that a theater is designed to magnify sound and even the smallest whispers or paper rustling can be heard throughout the auditorium. You are part of a community of audience members and you all work together to create your theater experience.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever built a Snowman?
 2. Do you know what it is to work hard and never give up?
 3. What are some examples of something you wanted so bad and you worked so hard to get?
- 