Dear Friend,

On Monday, October 7th, the St. George Theatre will host its Eighth Annual “Laughs on the Links” Golf, Bocce, Tennis & Pickleball Outing at the Richmond County Country Club, and we are reaching out to all our friends in the community to ask for your support in our fundraising efforts.

As the premier performing arts center for Staten Island, the money raised by this event will allow us to continue our mission of both restoring our historic theater and providing vital outreach and educational programs to our community. Please help support our efforts by joining us for a fun day at the beautiful Richmond County Country Club. You can play golf, bocce, tennis, or pickleball! Attached is the information regarding tickets and sponsorship opportunities. We are also accepting donations for our raffles and silent auctions.

We are pleased to announce our esteemed honorees!

Tekie Geek and their Superheroes of Cyber Security lead by Mike Bloomfield, provide outstanding service and the best in IT security for our fast-paced business. The company’s core values – community, culture, and clients – are reflected in everything they do, providing multiple levels of high-tech service to our organization. We rely on them 24/7 and they add to the success of our business on so many levels. They take pride in being nationally recognized in the IT industry and they take center stage in our technology world, behind the scenes.

Nellie Suarez, the Executive Program Director of Childcare at Seamen’s Society for Children and Families for her outstanding leadership as she’s been collaborating with us for over 20 years partnering with us to give foster care children and their families access to the arts by attending live performances and participating in our educational programs. Nellie has changed the lives of thousands of families during her forty-year career of service.

Frank Wilkinson spearheads as second-generation business owner, Rab’s Country Lanes, and has been providing a fun and safe haven for Staten Islanders for 30 years. More than just your neighborhood bowling alley, each year Rab’s helps local organizations raise over $500,000 through fundraisers and events. Frank has a solid volunteer portfolio through the non-profit organizations he is affiliated with and shines in our community. Frank dedicates his life to the Staten Island community and the bowling industry.

Anthony Wilkinson, a professional producer, writer, and actor, and three-time Emmy winner. He is well recognized for his full-length comedic play series, My Big Gay Italian Wedding, Funeral, Christmas, and Midlife Crisis through his company Bianco Productions where he is a pioneer bringing equity and inclusion to the stage for over 20 years. Anthony premiered his play at the St. George Theatre in 2005 before taking it to Off-Broadway. Also, he is the executive and artistic director for the Avenel Performing Arts Center in NJ. Anthony and his brother Frank Wilkinson are pillars in our community.

On behalf of our Board of Directors led by Brian Laline, our event chairpersons, and our entire Golf, Bocce, Tennis & Pickleball Outing Committee, we thank you for your support! The progress of the theatre could not be possible without the generosity of our community.

Sincerely,

Doreen P. Cugno
